

STATE COMMITTEE IS REQUESTED TO REINSTATE TEMPLE

The executive committee of district 10-AA of the Interscholastic League, meeting in annual session Wednesday at Waco, okayed a request to the state committee that Temple High's grid squad be allowed to compete officially in the district football race, R. A. Armistead, Corsicana principal, said late Wednesday after returning from the meeting.

Temple played a practice game some months ago in violation of league rules and was declared out of the district race regardless of the number of games it wins this fall. The request forwarded Wednesday asked that Temple be fined a half-game loss and allowed to compete officially in the race with that handicap.

Local Representatives Armistead, along with Coaches Boyd Payne, Otis Pederson and Garland Matthews, attended the Waco meeting.

The committee also checked up on eligibility of players, finding no complaint or objection on the basis of existing information, Armistead further said. It adopted a resolution supporting the "good sportsmanship" code drawn up last year by the high school student councils of the district.

General admission ticket prices for football games this fall were set. The only change in the price from those of last year was the hike in the adult tickets from 80 cents to $1. Increased labor and maintenance costs necessitated the hike, it was said.

Reserved seat and box seat prices were left optional with the individual schools. High school student prices were left at 30 cents, providing the tickets are bought before 5 p. m. the day of the game, and 50 cents if bought after that hour. College student prices were left at 50 cents.

The committee voted and approved the move to reconsider Temple's eligibility after a six weeks' stay in Ruidosa and Santa Fe, N. M.

Extensive Nurse Recruiting Drive Stated in Texas

As a preliminary measure to insure success to the opening of new Freshmen classes in their schools of nursing in September, the five Baptist Hospitals in Texas, one of which is Hillcrest Memorial of Waco, will launch a massive student nurse recruitment program this month.

The campaign is to be conducted in an effort to alleviate the critical shortage of nurses over the State.

Officials state that the demand for nurses far exceeds the supply, and that unless more young women answer the call and enter nursing, American people will suffer for lack of adequate care in times of sickness. The shortage in civilian hospitals has been acute since the beginning of war and has not been relieved since war's end because of the great number of nurses now required in veterans' hospitals, they have pointed out.

Personal Appeals to Be Issued.

As a part of the recruiting program, personal appeals will be issued to young women through Baptist churches and Sunday schools, and speakers will outline to them the advantages that nursing offers.

The five Baptist hospitals co-operating in the statewide student nurse recruitment campaign and the opening dates of their nursing school classes follow: Hendrick Memorial Hospital, Abilene, Sept. 18; Baylor Hospital, Dallas, Sept. 22; Valley Baptist Hospital, Harlingen, Sept. 8; Memorial Hospital, Houston, Sept. 2; Hillcrest Memorial Hospital, Waco, Sept. 18.

Interested young women are urged to write to the hospital of their choice.

Two Corsicana Girls Get NTSC Degrees

DENTON, Aug. 27.—(SPL.)—Two Corsicana students, Reba Hawthorne and Joyce Bell, received honorary degrees in business administration from the National Teachers' School, Mr. Tipping stated that the various oil companies located at Mildred would donate the major portion of the oil, and that all plans have been completed for the work to begin as soon as the weather permits.

The association voted to have an educational exhibit at the Corsicana-Navarro County Fair with Mrs. Ocie Tipping as chairman.

Mrs. Jack Cunningham, president, invited the various chairmen to meet with her later in the week to work out details of a program for the coming year.

Announcement was made that the next meeting will be held at the school on Sept. 10 at 3:30 o'clock p. m.

Purchase Automotive Vehicles.

J. Mack Jones, city engineer, and John R. Story, 614 West Third Ave., were two of a lucky 400 out of 8,600 World War II veterans able to purchase automotive vehicles from the War Assets Administration in a regional sale held at the Grand Prairie Warehouse.

Jones and Story drew positions enabling them to buy.

Another 150 vehicles, all in need of repairs, will be sold on a high bid basis at Grand Prairie Sept. 4 and 5 to veterans and other buyers.

NIGHT TRAINS FROM HERE TO WACO MAY BE DISCONTINUED

A decision of whether the St. Louis-Southwestern (Cotton Belt) Railroad will be permitted to discontinue night passenger service between Corsicana and Waco is expected in a few weeks.

C. V. Petet, examiner, was quoted in Waco Tuesday that the decision would not be announced "before two or three weeks." His statement was made at a hearing in Waco.

Representatives of the railroad point out that it placed the two night trains No. 105 and No. 108 in operation May, 1943, to accommodate troops at Camp Fanning near Taylor and North Camp Hood near Gatesville. With troops no longer at the camps, railroad officials said passenger use of the night trains is "very light."

One passenger train each way each day will be maintained.

The trains in question, those sought to be discontinued from Corsicana to Waco, will, if the commission allows, be operated between Mildred and Corsicana, turning around here instead of proceeding to Waco.

Residents of Axtell, McLennan county, and Purdon, Navarro county, argued against the discontinuation. More than 40 Purdon residents signed a protest. A. W. Moseley, who represented Purdon residents, said that community does not have an all-weather road to hard-surfaced highways and that there is no bus service to the town. The railroad also serves Dawson, Hubbard and Mt. Calm.

Mildred PTA In Called Session

The Mildred High School Parent-Teacher Association met in called session at the school on Monday afternoon to discuss with Ocie Tipping the oiling of the road from the highway to Providence school. Mr. Tipping stated that the various oil companies located at Mildred would donate the major portion of the oil, and that all plans have been completed for the work to begin as soon as the weather permits.

The association voted to have an educational exhibit at the Corsicana-Navarro County Fair with Mrs. Ocie Tipping as chairman.

TEXAS TODAY

By JACK RUTLEDGE Associated Press Staff

J. D. Yates of Dallas took a good look at the map of Texas and decided that if names mean anything, the Lone Star state has a everything.

For the spiritually inclined, he points out, there are towns named Eden, Paradise and Devine.

"For those who like color he offers Blue Ridge, Red Oak and Orange.

Suppose, Mr. Yates suggests, one wants liquor? Texas has towns named Calvert, Hunter and Crow.

If your weakness is women, how about Betty, Anna, Alice?

For outdoor fans: Deer Park, Elk, Buffalo.

For the intellectuals: Dickens, Dumas, Longfellow.

For contentment: Happy, Comfort, Sweet Home.

If you prefer big towns, Mr. Yates offers London, Paris, Washington. And for looks there are Blossom, Prairie, Blooming Grove, Grandview. For those who like to do things the hard way: Rockdale, Round Rock, Rock Springs.

Under a final heading, "Just Plain Queer," he lists Dime Box, Point Blank and Pistol Hill.

Muleshoe, Texas, was named for the Muleshoe Ranch, but the real story is how the ranch got its name: The outfit's first roundup was under way when it was discovered that no brand- ing irons were on hand. An ingenious cowboy suggested they use a muleshoe—not an ordinary muleshoe, but one of the small type used on the little Spanish mules.

So a muleshoe was mounted to make a branding iron, the brand was called Muleshoe, and the ranch and eventually the town were named Muleshoe, too.

Penelope and Irene were named for a wife and daughter—Mrs. C. L. Noble and Miss Irene Bowers—of a former official of the old I. and G. N. railroad.

Maybelle was named for the youngest daughter of the late Governor Campbell, according to Mrs. C. V. Percy of Burnet.

Mrs. L. M. Behee of Austin comes up with a good suggestion: "I wonder who someone doesn't name their town U. S. S. Texas, so Texans can say the United States is in Texas? No one has lived until they've lived in Texas."

JAYCEES PLANNING 2 BOOSTER TRIPS FOR LOCAL FAIR, RODEO

Two trips boosting the Corsicana Fair and Rodeo to be held here Sept. 16-20, will be made to a score of East Texas cities this year, according to Virgil Reese and Tom Paschal, co-chairmen of the Junior Chamber of Commerce committee in charge of arrangement.

The first trip will be made Wednesday, Sept. 3. Persons going on the trip will assemble in front of the Chamber of Commerce office at 7:30 a. m. on that date. A bus will be furnished by the Fair Association and transportation will be free, it was announced.

Leaving here at 8 a. m., the Boosters will go to Ennis, Waxahatchie, Italy, Hillsboro, West, Waco, Mart, Groesbeck, Mexia, Coldice, Hubbard, Dawson, and all points between. The group is expected to be back in Corsicana by 7:30 p. m., at which time a street dance will be staged in the block in front of the State National Bank on Beaton street.

The second trip will be made on Sept. 10. The group will travel to Kerens, Athens, Tyler, Gladewater, Longview, Kilgore, Henderson, Jacksonville, Palestine, Fairfield, Strawn and Richland. There also will be a street dance after that trip.

In addition to the buses, several private cars also will make the trips. Advertising material will be furnished cars, the Jaycees announced.

The Jaycees have asked everyone to wear cowboy regalia of any sort of fashion.

Telephone Wires Are Damaged By Hunters

Hunters are urged by H. P. Phillips, Corsicana manager of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, to use care in shooting at or near its pole lines during the approaching hunting season.

Phillips said that 2,500 telephone wires were shot out of commission last year, with one third of the trouble on open wire long distance telephone lines last year traced to gunshot damage.

"Even good shots miss occasionally," Phillips said, "and a shot at a bird on a telephone line, or flying in front of it, may cut a wire and interrupt telephone service between towns until we can get men out there to repair it. Some important messages could be delayed."

The Rev. M. Burton of Kerens will be in Corsicana on Friday afternoon and evening to discuss "Practical Community Service" at the North Corsicana Sub-District Methodist Youth Fellowship meeting at the City Park from 5 to 10 o'clock p. m.

IOOF DEDICATION PLANS DISCUSSED AT DALLAS MEETING

Preliminary plans relative to the dedication ceremonies of the new IOOF Home here, Nov. 22-23, were discussed at a meeting in Dallas Wednesday night. Leland S. Dupree, Dallas banker and chairman of the finance committee, presided. Various committees to work in the program will be appointed later.

shampoos when you have a cold. Other times use the liquid shampoos to make your hair shine like the stars. Though your shampoo may not require that you use a rinse, some girls like to top their shampoo off with a lemon or a vinegar rinse.

One professional hairdresser in town uses beer to set the hair. The advantage of beer is that it not only speeds up the drying process but it actually seems to keep the wave in for a longer period. And there is no beer-scent after the hair is dry.

If you are going to experiment with one of these long-to-short hairstyles, why not ask your hairdresser to give you a styling and let you know how to arrange it? Then it should be simple for you to accomplish a professional hairdressing job at home. And remember, in experimenting with a new coiffure as with everything else, if at first you don't succeed, try, try again.

Plan good eating for Labor Day weekend

by Carol Drake

Nothing quite like good food, especially good that is, to give the Labor Day weekend a holiday air.

FROZEN ORANGE CRUSH will start the day bright. Pour orange juice into refrigerator trays; freeze to mush. Serve in sauce dishes with a saucy sprig of mint.

WHOLE KERNEL CORN FOLDED INTO SCRAMBLED EGGS with some chopped chives or parsley is a sunny surprise! (Sure, leftover roasting ears can be de-kernelled for corn, but who ever has any left over?)

TAFFY ROLL UPS—the tasty finale. Roll biscuit dough 1/4-inch thick. Spread with butter, cinnamon, sugar and raisins. Roll jelly roll style; slice. Bake at 400° F. 16 minutes; remove from oven; spoon on Taffy Syrup: 1/2 cup molasses, 1/4 cup water and 1 tablespoon butter cooked to softball stage (235° F.).

CHOCOLATE MINT WAFERS—Nice for bidding farewells and closing cottages, lunch boxes or teas. Make chocolate ice box cookie dough. Shape rolls about 50-cent piece size; wrap in waxed paper; chill several hours. Slice thin and bake. Put together sandwich-style with minted green powdered sugar frosting.

SPEAKING OF SANDWICHES, Carol Drake has a free Tea Sandwich booklet, suggesting ways of filling and cutting sandwiches. Write P. O. Box 2110, Dept. TS, San Francisco 26, Calif.

A LABOR SAVING WAY WITH SPARRIES—APPROPRIATE TO THE DAY. Simmer sparries until tender, about 1 hour. Remove bones (they practically fall out) and cut in serving-size pieces—we use 4 ribs per person. Refrigerate until 16 minutes before eating time in barbecue sauce—ready bottled or your own special tomato paste-cayenne-vinegar-brown sugar version. Remove from sauce; broil, basting frequently with the barbecue sauce. Ribless ribs mean easy eating.

COUNTY

year: Road District 15—$1.50, no change.

Outstanding Bonds
In the discussion it was pointed out that in Road District 15, Winkler area, only $5,000 bonds remain outstanding and will be paid in three more years at $2,000 per year. Considerable repairs are needed along the slab in Richland creek bottom, especially in drainage matters. F. M. Cope-land, county commissioner, said he planned some repairs there.

J. N. Edens, who attended the hearing, asked the court to leave off the one-cent tax for the jury fund since there is $11,808.58 in that fund without the additional $2,400 revenue anticipated. Last year's expenditures were $2,800, Auditor

Cunningham said. The assessor and collector of taxes, however, has already about finished figuring the taxes and for that reason the deletion of the levy was not made. It was indicated by members of the court, with the same condition prevailing in the permanent improvement fund where some $5,000 is now available. A two-cent levy is made in that fund.

The road and bridge fund revenues are anticipated at $139,100, and after the administrative costs are taken out, there is $132,100 for the road maintenance purposes—divided $38,309.03 for Precinct 1, $31,263.66 for Precinct 2 and $31,263.67 for Precincts 3 and 4, an increase of $17,000 over this year's revenues. The regular road and bridge levy will be 15 cents. Auto registrations and other revenues provide the additional money.

The special 15-cent road and bridge tax voted last year has provided $29,000 this year that is unexpended. The increased tax roll this year will produce slightly more this year.

Road Improvements
Edens suggested the court that the revenues of both years—about $70,000, be used for permanent road improvements as the court sees fit. He said he believed such an arrangement would be satisfactory to everyone concerned. He also said that this money under a program with the highway department could result in much good, and suggested that efforts be made to see what could be worked out. Later in the morning, the banker and head of the Corsicana Cotton Mills and local fair association, said that the ground work had been made several years ago for a highway from Corsicana to Kaufman through Chatfield, but was now dormant. He suggested that the commissioners court, Chamber of Commerce and others agree on a road program, and be represented at every meeting of the Highway commission, asking for roads, highways, etc. He predicted that not only the highway in question could be secured, but also additional farm-to-market roads if the proper effort and work is expended.

Salary Fund
The officers salary fund is $11,032.50 out of balance with anticipated revenues at $1,275 including an anticipated $8,000 balance requested expenditures are $92,307.50. The anticipated receipts are $73,275.

County Auditor Cunningham said there had not been any transfers to the salary fund from the general fund in 1947. A fund of $7,500 is in the budget this year. He has put $3,000 in the 1948 proposed budget to be transferred from the general fund. Raises included about $3,500 in the office of assessor and collector of taxes—boosting from $22,532 to $26,100. The district clerk's office request are upped from $7,223 to $7,450—an increase of $227.

The sheriff's office comes in for considerable boost. Under a newly enacted law, mileage is to be paid the sheriff and his deputies—not less than 6 cents nor more than 10 cents per mile. Based on the mileage as estimated by the officers at 8 cents, this item will be $5,100. The county now and in the past has paid the deputies a flat fee for car expenses. Another item mentioned is a radio appropriation of $3,000.

The general fund was being discussed at the noon recess. Items include bonds, salaries, etc. $8,208; election, $2,600; puppers, $1,100; health officer, $900; hospital, $4,000 (Hospital board has recommended the item but does not anticipate using it during 1948 except as an emergency measure); jail maintenance, upped from $2,800 to $4,525; agriculture and livestock, raised from $6,738 to $7,490. (H. O. Robinson, county agent, requests $50 a month salary increase). Cunningham said that $10,300 was set up to retire notes owed the First National Bank—20 percent of an old debt. He said that the present time the general fund owes the bank $14,000.

The anticipated revenues of the general fund is listed at $68,205, while the requested expenditures are $76,597.50—leaving a deficit of $10,192.50. There is an item in both the general and salary funds relative to sheriff's automobiles that reduces the overall deficit to $17,000.

Mrs. John C. Hughes spoke of the Home Demonstration work in Navarro county and the need of its continuation.

J. C. Gaston, district clerk and Texas National Guard officer, said the guard needed assistance for administrative purposes.

Octogenarian Twins Aim for 100 Mark

NATION'S OLDEST TWINS Mrs. Lila Hale and Mrs. Jane Stanley. Their father lived to be 104 years old.

AP Newsfeatures.
POUND, Va.—At 87, Jane Mullens Stanley and Mrs. Lila Mullens Hale may be the nation's oldest twin sisters.

The aged mountain women are the daughters of Jack Mullens, a legendary figure known in this Virginia-Kentucky border area as "Brandy Jack," who lived to be 104 years old. Brandy Jack's daughter's, both widows, believe they too, can pass the century mark.

Spry and active, they live on farms a few miles apart. Their years have been marked with little sickness. Mrs. Stanley, "Aunt Jane" to friends and relatives, hardly knows the taste of medicine.

"I never needed it," she said, "because I was never sick, to say really sick, in my life; only a few colds, and they are quite rare."

Mrs. Hale has "nothing whatever to complain about so far as health is concerned." She admits that she has "called in one doctor in late years," but he indicated "there wasn't much wrong."

In her opinion, "the worst thing in life is being lonely." Since Mrs. Hale's husband died some 12 years ago, she has had little adult company.

THREE WORKINGMEN FOUNDED WORLD'S DOMINANT RELIGIONS*

Every Person Owes World Debt of Honest Work -- Peril of Parasites -- Good Work, in One's Own Sphere, a Proof of Religious Orthodoxy -- Example of Jesus the Carpenter

BY WILLIAM T. ELLIS and EARL L. DOUGLASS

Our world is dominated by three monotheistic religions—Judaism, Christianity and Mohammedanism—and each was founded and led by a workingman: Moses, the shepherd; Jesus, the carpenter, and Mohammed, the camel-driver. Well did Henry Van Dyke write: "This is the Gospel of Labor; Ring it, ye bells of the church!" The Lord of Love came down from above, To dwell with the men who work.

Man's clearest thinking is taught by his daily employment. More education is imparted by the work one does than by the schools in which he studies. For work brings one face to face with life's great realities. Work was the curse of Eden, but it is the salvation of society.

Pity the Idle Rich Weary workers, tired in body, brain, and soul, who are everywhere, by the way, is decreasing everywhere in the world—but they would not do so were they to realize the emptiness and discontent of those lives which exist with only an aim, self-plesing. Those of us who have work to do, no matter how humble, should thank God as we arise every morning for the privilege and duty of tasks to be done, as our share in the sacred on-going of life.

Mothers, especially, feel the burden of toil. Theirs is an endless round of monotony—cooking, cleaning, caring for a family with a multitude and variety of needs. Yet in the very performance of these duties character is shaped, wisdom is ripened, responsibility is realized, until there has developed that most glorious figure of our time, the typical mother, to whom all men pay glowing tribute. They display a wisdom of living beyond all the teaching of the schools. Their children rise up to call them blessed.

And the heroism of the toiling fathers, who have assumed the responsibility of providing for a family's varied needs, is one of the glories of human life. We sometimes write and talk of the average man as if he were a mere political or economic problem; whereas he is an essential factor in working out the Scripture's conception of the Kingdom of Heaven on earth. God honors man by calling himself "Father."

Our French Problem has been thrown a new problem, staggering in its vastness and vital in its nature—the problem of feeding, clothing, equipping and organizing the destitute nations. The task and its cost and problems are greater than any other mankind has ever faced. Most of us have not yet grasped its immensity and urgency. Talk of the possible collapse of civilization falls on uncomprehending ears.

Upon the United States and Canada will devolve most of the burden of financing and providing the tools and bread of life for the nations of Europe and Asia. Incredible billions of dollars must be provided. New brains to direct this vastest project to which man has ever set his hand must be found. Religion must be brought to bear, with its master motives. A whole new conception of civilization must be wrought out.

A Word in Season It does not seem as if there is Providential timeliness in the present Sunday School Lesson, upon work as a Bible teaching. Productivity is the immediate practical problem. Every worker in the world, whether he labors on farm or in factory, with business or with books, is urged to increase his output.

As our text says, "He that is slack in his work is a destroyer." The same will say with Jesus, "I must work." There is present pertinency in the lines of Kipling: "Go to your work and be strong; halting not in your ways, Balking the end half won for an instant dote of praise. Stand to your work and be wise; certain of sword and pen, Who are neither children nor gods, but men in a world of men."

One of the brainiest leaders I ever knew said to me, when we were discussing the training of our sons: "The most important thing is to train a boy to be efficient in whatever task he undertakes. Teach him to abhor sloppiness or half-done work. Every job he is given should be done right up to the handle. Then he will never lack for a position or a promotion. He will never be a slacker or an idler."

My friend's son has since vindicated his father's philosophy, for he is a successful, honored man. Our Golden Text sums up the day's lesson. "Whatever thy hand findeth to do, do it with all thy might."

Corsicana Youth Sets Example For Many Collegians

BY JACK RUTLEDGE
Associated Press Staff

You can't tell it by looking at the thermometer, but almost before you can wipe the sweat from your forehead it will be fall and the schools will be open.

Many Collegians will be working their way through various and sundry alma maters, and they'd do well to listen to the story of Joe Howerton of Corsicana.

Howerton worked his way through North Texas State College last year. He made $667.75 at a part time job with a furniture company. He saved $562.25.

Asked what he did with that extra $, he admitted that he has a few human weaknesses. He said he just blew it in.

Dick King, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde King of Stephenville, is returning to Oklahoma University this fall as society editor of the school newspaper.

He's the first male society editor in the 33-year history of the periodical. He is a senior at journalism, and worked during the summer for the Stephenville Empire-Tribune.

And at North Texas State again, there's Ray Womack, a track star. He attended summer school, and took home enough to pay his tuition.

He sat each afternoon in a class filled with future housewives and teachers. He said he enrolled thinking he might need to know entertainments.

Do boys and girls from cities or villages make the best grades? Texas Tech says it's about 50-50, which proves nothing. But it does help fill space: Nine of 14 honor students this year came from towns of more than 5,000 population. But the four who received degrees with highest honors all came from towns of less than 4,000.

The highest ranking of all, Maxine Harp, came from Abertown (pop. 837).

Bonham high school exes met this year in a reunion, with every class since 1894 represented. It was the first reunion since 1940. The next will be held in 1952.

Mrs. Jacobs Would—But Bear Wouldn't Have Picture Taken

Julius Jacobs, city attorney, now on vacation in Yellowstone National Park, probably will never again the rest of his normal life get an opportunity to take a picture of his wife and a bear.

It is not known that he got a picture this time.

Jacobs was trying to get a good movie of his wife—based on the leg, tucked her leg, ground in a sequence not scheduled by the producer, Jacobs.

The animal ripped her boots, tore her slacks, buried her.

The couple left later for Lake Louise in Canada to take some more pictures.

Rainstorm Blamed For Death Of Two In Plane Crash

EMORY, Texas, Aug. 28.—(AP)—A blinding rainstorm was blamed today for the death of two Atlanta, Ga., men who were killed yesterday when their plane crashed in a heavily wooded area nine miles west of here.

The men were identified by Joe Hood, Emory undertaker, as J. R. Banks, Jr., 23, and Wesley Studard, 24, both employees of the Southern Airways.

Hood said the plane apparently was caught in a wind and rain storm and was hurled to the ground. It was demolished.

COACH JOHN CORNER EXPECTED TO FIELD DISTRICT 23-B THREAT

The State Home Lads, runners-up in the 23-B District football race in 1946, will begin their practice sessions for the 1947 season on Sept. 1, with the majority of other high school teams over the state. Unlike many of the other teams, however, the Lads will have a 1946 letterman back for each position, with several to spare. Thirteen lettermen will be back, and another will possibly be available when his status is cleared up at a later date, Coach John Corner, Lad mentor, announced. In addition, 27 squadmen will supplement the more experienced men.

Corner's charges will concentrate entirely on the T formation this year, discarding the J and single-wing formations they used last year to go undefeated until their second game of the year with the Kereas aggregation, when the East Navarro county outfit took the district championship.

Returning Lettermen. The 1946 lettermen who will be out to retain their positions are Charles Jones, guard, and Charles Murdock end, both of whom are this year's co-captains; Eugene Bryant, tackle; Reagan Carpenter, guard; Cleophus Downey, back; Arthur Harrington, end; Oliver Milner, back; Billy Earl Phillips, tackle; Prentice (Buck) Phillips, back; Marvin Rawls, back; Lovelace Redding, guard; Albert Taber, back, and Jo Dan Wells, center.

Returning squadmen are Ralph Ballentine, Beverly Belchner, Clifton Belchner, W. A. Cannon, Charles Carrington, Virgil Crenney, Lloyd Cross, John Egan, Tommy Gordon, James Graham, Willie Jenkins, Leon Hambrick, Donald Johnson, Edwin Lambright, Eugene May, James Murdock, Roger Poron, Waymond Peron, Robert Piland, Carl Roberts, Luther Rogers, Roy Taylor, DeWayne Weatherford, J. T. Shipley and Glenn Canady.

Preliminary Training. Running and conditioning exercises are occupying the Lads' time until interscholastic practice permit the start of football practice on Sept. 1. After that date there will be time for but nine practice sessions before the Lads open their season with a non-district match against Fairfield there.

The Home gridders will be sporting new uniforms when they take the field this fall. The suits will consist of green headgear with white trim, green jerseys with white numbers, and white pants. Corner says that a quantity of shoes and other grid equip-

Dewey's speech to the American Legion in the Garden followed shortly the call to order by Paul H. Griffith, the Legion's national commander, who rang an 18-inch high replica of the Liberty Bell in accordance with Legion custom dating back 20 years.

National Commander Griffith, in his annual report to the convention, also advocated military preparedness. He said that false governmental economy had cut American armed forces at home and abroad "to a level where our international commitments are definitely endangered."

Griffith added that "if there was ever an example of a penny-wise and pound-foolish economy, this trend toward deteriorating our army, navy and air forces to this extent is a glaring example."

Louis A. Johnson, past national commander of the Legion, responded to addresses of welcome and told the delegates there was "entirely too much talk" of another war.

"We are now told," Johnson said, "that the world will not be free for democracy until we have fought and defeated Soviet Russia." He added that "to think that we must reach for the sword every time we are in disagreement with the policies of another country is to deny that we have either the will or the intelligence to work for peace."

Johnson then declared, "However, let no one have the false illusion that America will not draw the sword when the occasion demands."

The Rev. Carroll Thompson of Tehuacana will be in Corsicana Friday afternoon and evening, to participate in the Methodist Youth Fellowship meeting at City Park.

VETS CENTER THANKS RED CROSS CHAPTER FOR BOX OF BOOKS

Appreciation for a box of late novels was expressed to the Navarro County Red Cross chapter Wednesday by Dr. H. Rubin, manager, Veterans' Administration Center, Waco.

Dr. Rubin wrote Mrs. Mary Simpson, executive secretary of the Navarro Unit, saying that additional copies of current books "are very welcome."

"Aside from the pleasure a man may derive from reading, the fact that he is able to keep abreast of interests outside the hospital through his library has a morale boosting effect which is often a very desirable thing," he said.

The books were given the local chapter by a man whose name the chapter did not record.

The books were taken to the hospital by Mrs. Simpson and Mrs. Ed Willis.

Later in the session Rep. Sam Sellers of Waco, member of the joint legislative committee, handed a report to Speaker W. O. Road charging "rampant brutality" at certain prison farms and calling for the discharge of two prison farm managers. The report was never read to the house nor any official action taken. A later resolution asking further investigation however, was passed by the house but died in the senate.

Sellers' communication to Reed claimed that some inmates were "treated worse than animals," and described sodomy and self-mutilation as "regular and consistent" offenses among prisoners on three farms.

MACKENZIE'S Column

By FRANCIS W. CARPENTER, AP Foreign News Analyst

The security council needs a vacation and a new start. How can the 11 members of the key United Nations organization charged with the responsibility of keeping the world at peace, take a rest now? There is trouble in Greece, fighting in Indonesia and strife aplenty elsewhere.

The reason is this: The delegates have done everything they can do at this stage in the game.

Assembly Meets Sept. 16. They must find a new approach to the situation. Several are hoping the general assembly will provide that approach. The assembly convenes Sept. 16.

This has been the most active summer in the United Nations short history. It is evident that the delegates are getting tired of looking at the same old faces every day and that they need a change of scenery.

There are some iron men on the council but even these would like a rest. The prospect now is a brief council vacation beginning tomorrow (Friday).

The United States has turned to the assembly as a sort of last resort to deal with the Balkan case. U. S. Balkan Plan Vetoed. Every move by the United States to set up a semi-permanent U. N. committee in the Balkans to help settle the troubles there has been resisted by the Soviet Union, with a Russian veto capping the final moves in that respect.

The veto, too, is another matter on which the U. N. needs a new approach. That device, brought up originally by the United States and eagerly grasped by Soviet Russia, has come into some dispute by frequent usage—18 times by Russia and two by France. The lack of the police force is another detriment to the council which must be overcome eventually.

So far the council can do nothing but issue verbal edicts, even when all powers agree, which is not often. So they all agree at Lake Success now that they need a vacation and some new ideas about how to preserve world peace.

NEW YORK—Jackie Miles is one wartime comedian who has more than a narrow chance of becoming permanently popular.

Already the shooting stars of the night club firmament have begun their return trip to the second and third rate clubs and Borscht Belt hotels from whence they came while many of the top comics were off to war. Some of them are more than a little irritated that they haven't been able to stay on top, although they do not offer any overly rational reason for the sudden decline. They wonder aloud how Jackie Miles, now earning $4,000 a week in night clubs and theaters, is able to stay up there with the Joe E. Lewis, Harry Richman, Sophie Tucker, Milton Berle and the other veterans despite his comparatively callow years.

Right now Jackie is headlining at the huge and beautiful Riviera, an excitingly scenic night club situated atop the New Jersey Palisades, just across the George Washington Bridge. He is working after an extended illness, which would pay for a dozen or more of the brash young lads who hoped to keep pace with his comic career after things got back to normal.

JACKIE'S a soft spoken fellow, skinnier than Sinatra if that is possible. He almost whispers some of his material into the microphone. He is no pure linguist. You still can detect hints of a tough childhood through the restrained stories which have made him a star and, at least before taxes, one of Broadway's highest earners.

As a matter of further startling fact, Jackie's stories likely as not don't even have "punch-lines," a situation which would have Milton Berle writhing in mental pain were he faced with a similar situation. But Jackie gets his humor more from his manner of telling than with some startling "switch" or traditional comic "gimmick."

He does no prat-falls, wears no funny make-up, putty nose or baggy pants. He works simply, in a well-cut dinner jacket, soft evening shirt and black tie, smokes a cigarette and twirls a handkerchief with a sort of calm, detached nervousness as he underplays rather than over-emphasizes his material.

JACKIE was born in New York about 30 years ago. He early discovered more than a usual dislike for school and abandoned his formal education after finishing, or at least attending, the sixth grade. This is not an unusual background for a comedian, several having come to even greater prominence after less schooling. But it is more than passably interesting because Jackie recently was invited to address a group of Harvard students on the subject of American idioms.

CROP BENEFITS SEEN FROM GENERAL RAINS IN NAVARRO COUNTY

COUNTY AGENT REPORTS PRECIPITATION WORTH MUCH TO MAJOR CROPS

Rains falling Tuesday morning throughout Navarro county are of untold benefit to crops, pastures, and the moisture will be beneficial to fall gardens and preparation of soil for fall grains and winter cover crops.

The precipitation in Corsicana was 1.30 inches to 7 a. m. and some rain fell after that time. The rain at Dawson was reported at 1.52 inches, while all other sections reported good rains.

Cotton Crop Aided. H. C. Robinson, county agent, is of the opinion the rains will materially help young cotton and will prevent the opening of immature bolls on the older crop. The agent said that the grade of the small amount of cotton open might be lowered because of high winds during the rainfall prevented the falling out of the open lint and its loss.

The moisture will benefit pastures, causing the grass to resume its growth that had been stopped by the continued drouth conditions. The agent is of the opinion that second crops of Johnson grass hay will be made in some sections, while second hay crops of other types of crops may be grown if an early frost is not received.

Little Water Provided. The rain fell slowly, sinking into the arid soil, and did not provide any stock water. Many smaller tanks and ponds are dry and in some sections, farmers and stockmen are being required to haul water for livestock.

Fall plowing will be made possible and planting of grains will begin soon, the agent said.

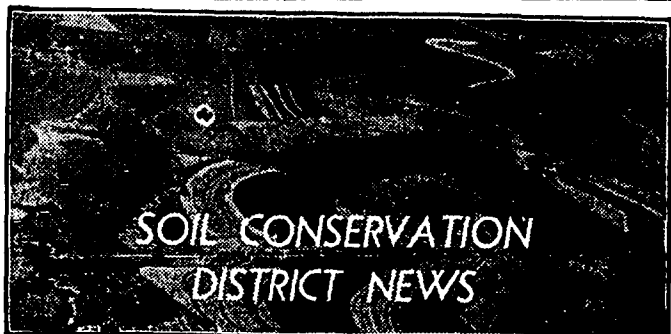

Robinson does not anticipate any serious damage from insects unless there is a continued rainy season.

Following are the reports from county points:

Dawson—1.52 inches.
Richland—Good rain.
Kerens—Good rain.
Emhouse—Nice rain.
Roane—Slow rain all night.
Rice—Nice rain.
Blooming Grove—Good, slow rain.
Frost—Rain since midnight.
Road and highway maintenance and construction work was interrupted.

Purchase Gladewater Coffeshop. John T. and James D. Nettles, Jr., have purchased the Plekwick Hotel Coffee Shop at Gladewater and have taken over its operation. The men formerly were associated with their father, J. D. Nettles, in operation of the Navarro Coffee Hotel Shop.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

District Supervisor Navarro-Hill Soil Conservation District: Morris Crawford, chairman; W. C. Pearce, vice-chairman; Thad Jones, secretary; E. Creekmore and W. Lewis David, members.

Production of hubam clover on the Powell flats give encouraging results as a cash crop. Based on results obtained this season by Morgan Lowe, of the South Powell conservation group, hubam clover as a part of the rotation has excellent possibilities both as a cash crop and as a soil conditioner in the area.

Lowe harvested 300 pounds of hubam seed to the acre. He believes the growing of deep rooted crops is what the flat blackland around Powell needs. He says this should loosen the subsoil and allow better drainage.

Cash Crop. L. R. Nolan, Rural Shade conservation group, whose farm is located three miles south of Rural Shade is high in his praise for hubam clover. The crop serves as a cash crop, a soil improving crop, an erosion resisting crop at the proper time of year and is excellent for bees to feed on for the production of honey. The per acre yields of hubam seed on the Nolan farm were 302 pounds.

To make the conservation job more complete on the Nolan farm the construction of terraces is now under way. The terraces are being constructed by the use of a farm tractor, a terracing disk and a six-foot terracing blade.

G. L. Tate recently completed construction of two miles of terraces on his farm located three miles north of Emhouse. Assistance in planning and laying out the system was given by personnel of the Corsicana Soil Conservation Service headquarters.

Plan Discussed. First steps in organizing what the chapter hopes will be an answer to whatever problems disaster brings with it were taken when the plan was discussed by Tom Wagner, general field representative of the area office, Dawson and members of the office staff attended.

cue, medical and nursing aid, shelter, food, clothing, transportation, communication, registration, information and central purchase and supply.

The Red Cross has both an official and a manual mandate to relieve human suffering caused by natural disasters," Mrs. Simpson said. "This responsibility rests upon every chapter, and upon the national organization. Neither has the right to surrender the duties which the government has laid upon the Red Cross, and which the American people expect the Red Cross to perform. When a disaster occurs within the jurisdiction of a chapter, it is the duty of the chapter officials to take the leadership in giving the necessary relief to those in need."

Greatest Flood In History Of County Said 60 Years Ago

Old-timers in Navarro county Wednesday recalled the greatest flood in history of this area sixty years ago.

The rainfall, according to the information handed down to younger residents, approached the 40-inch stage for a few days period.

Walter Hayes, deputy sheriff, says that Chambers Creek was the highest ever known, sweeping bridges and other structures away. He quotes old-timers as saying that on August 27, 1887, the crest of Chambers creek was from hill to hill at the Hogan bridge crossing, sweeping away a bridge and high water viaduct.

E. M. Dawson, deputy assessor and collector of taxes, resident of Frost, quoted old-timers of the West Navarro area as recalling the flood of '87 while reading news reports and listening to broadcasts about the huge rains over Texas during the past couple of days following the tropical hurricane that lashed the Gulf coast.

Dawson said that the Frost lake had been completed only a short time, but that the huge rains sent the surging waters over the dam, sweeping it away.

Hayes, who resided in the Pettys Chapel area near Hogan Bridge as a young lad, said that since the '87 flood, the highest water mark lacked some four or five feet reaching the crest of that time.

Frank Dunton will be a candidate for a degree from the College of Arts and Sciences at the University of Texas on August 31.
